What Are You Missing?

What is BIM - really?
Who uses it?
Why? How? Where? When?

Why and How is BIM a smart choice for YOU?
What questions should you ask?
How can you get started?

COME GET SOME ANSWERS!

BIM is a valuable tool. Learn from Owners, Designers, Contractors, and Trade Partners who have discovered the benefits of BIM to their projects - some surprisingly unexpected.

Whether public or private, new construction or renovation, the entire project, or particular components, BIM has applications that can result in significant benefits and savings in time, money and resources for your projects. Discover how!

Who would benefit from this course:
Owners, Architects/Designers, CMs, Engineers, Contractors, Subcontractors, Schedulers, Lean teams, and more.

PRESENTERS:

Program Champion: David Higgins, Jr., President, HMH Builders
Harry Hallenbeck, Vice President, Vanir BIM Services.
Jim Bedrick, Vice President, Virtual Building & Design
James MacKenzie, Director, Swinerton Center for Excellence
Greg Smith, Dir., Virtual Design & Construction, Skanska USA Building

PLUS a PANEL and Project Presentations from other BIM using owners, designers, builders, etc. Including:
CDCR, CA Lottery, CA DGS, DeAnza College, and more.
